

Job Description

Job Title	Maintenance Engineer – Plating Shop	Department	Facilities
Reports to	Site Maintenance Engineer

Job purpose

Provide general mechanical maintenance and electrical support within the maintenance department. Based within the plating shop. Specific purpose shall be the maintenance and repair of all equipment and facility areas/ Plating shop

Duties and responsibilities

- Maintain and repair all equipment and facility areas to agreed standard, with the ability to identify detailed faults
- Complete daily checks to machines and equipment, including statutory checks, within skills capabilities and skills approvals
- To work shift, and provide out of hour call in support
- Identify spares required in proactive timescales
- All duties shall be undertaken in compliance with Safety, Environmental Regulations and Company procedures
- An awareness and understanding of responsibilities outlined in the Company's environmental procedures.

Working conditions

- The position requires understanding of working conditions and environment in a COMAH SITE
- The position requires from time to time flexibility in working hours including working overtime at weekends.
- The nature of the job requires the applicant to come into contact with various greases and oils
- The position involves the training and use of overhead cranes.
- The job requires the applicant to understand manual handling
- The job requires the use of hand tools and power tools.
- The ability to keep your working area clean and tidy and to a high standard

Physical requirements

- The job requires the applicant to stand for a prolonged amount of time with a number of breaks throughout the day.
- The position and process involves lifting heavy aircraft components.
- The position requires the applicant to use maintenance components requiring good physical strength

Direct reports

- This job has no direct reports

Job Description

Person Specification

Education and qualifications

- Recognized Mechanical Engineering qualifications, and skills
- Driving and Fork Lift equipment licenses (not required)
- 17th edition or equivalent
- IPAF License
- AHU's & FCU's
- A mechanical / electrical background
- Apprenticeship preferred but not essential
- Legionella training

Experience and knowledge

- Extensive experience preferably within a similar role
- Understanding of a COMAH site would be preferable
- Proven basic Electrical / mechanical skills
- Tower Access & Cherrypicker / working at heights
- Experience within a plating shop would be beneficial
- Knowledge of overhead travelling cranes / collectors / motors / transfer gates,
- Good knowledge of pvc / pvc-u pipework
- Good knowledge of air systems
- Good knowledge of plant motors / pumps / plating tanks.
- Basic understanding of industrial gas ovens / chiller units / rectifiers etc.

Personal qualities

- Ability to understand verbal and written instructions
- Ability to use tools and equipment in a safe manner
- Ability to work under pressure with the minimum of supervision
- Copes well under pressure and can deliver what is required
- Can deal with contractors whilst on site

Other Requirements

- None